

Dr. C.B. Binu. MD,
Specialist Psychiatrist and Medical Director,
Al Fasht Medical Centre.
(Centre for Child Behavior, Autism & Adult Psychiatry)

Dr. C.B. Binu is the specialist Child, Adolescence and Adult Psychiatrist at Al Fasht Medical Centre with 15 years' experience in Neurodevelopmental Disorders. He leads a multidisciplinary team that evaluate, diagnose and provide therapeutic intervention to children and adolescents with Autism Spectrum Disorders, Attention Deficit Disorders, Specific Learning Disorders, Childhood Behavioral and Emotional Disorders, Speech and Language Disorders along with Parental guidance and counseling.

Before joining Al Fasht, Dr. Binu was heading Navajyoti Centre for Child Behavioral Sciences, Kusamagiri Hospital, India, which is a super specialized mind institute for childhood neuro – psychiatric syndromes especially Autism. He also devised family and school based outreach programs for screening, assessing and treating psychological disorders in child and adolescents in the community.

He was also the Consultant Psychiatrist at Indira Gandhi Co- Operative Hospital, Kochi where he delivered outpatient and inpatient services at the Child Guidance Clinic, General Adult Psychiatry, Geriatric Psychiatry (especially Dementia Clinic), De addiction unit and Personality disorders clinic.

He also served as a Registrar in Psychiatry at Christian Medical College, Vellore and as Assistant Medical Officer at Gandhi Co - operative Hospital. Dr. C.B. Binu has also chaired and organized various conferences and seminars on Child Developmental Disorders and Adult Psychiatry globally.